الْمَفْعُولُ فِيهِ

What is an Adverb?

1. An adverb is that noun which shows the time or place the action (of the Doer) took place or shows the location (place) of someone or something. Look at these examples:

1b	1a
زَارَ حَامِدٌ صَبَاحًا . Hamid visited in the morning.	أَكَلَ الطَّعَامَ لَيْلًا . He ate the food at night. He ate the food in the night.
In this example, the action (visiting) has taken place in the morning. Thus, the word صباح is the adverb, as this word shows at what time the action took place.	In this example, the action (eating) has taken place at night (in the night). Thus, the word لَيْل is the adverb, as this word shows at what time the action took place.

بَيْتُ الْإِمَامِ أَمَامَ الْمَسْجِدِ . The Imam's house is in front of the Masjid.
In this example, the word أَمَام shows the location of the Imam's house. Note that the adverb is being used as a possessive compound. Refer to the next section for more about this.

2. Adverbs thus answer the question when and where.
3. Adverbs can also be described as words that “give extra information” such as (for example) the time of performing the action or the location (place) of someone or something.
- 4. Adverbs are always in the Accusative Case.
5. The adverb is referred to as مَفْعُولٌ فِيهِ. Many adverbs incorporate the meaning of the preposition فِي, hence the name.
6. Another word for adverb is ظَرْفٌ.
7. Adverbs are generally split into the following categories:

1	2
Adverb of Place ¹	Adverb of Time ²
ظَرْفُ الْمَكَانِ	ظَرْفُ الزَّمَانِ

Using Adverbs

Adverbs are generally used in the following manner⁸:

Adverb of Place	Adverb of Time
ظُرْتُ الْمَكَانَ	ظُرْتُ الزَّمَانَ
Generally used as a Possessive Compound.	Not often used as a Possessive Compound.
The rules of the Possessive Compound will apply.	The adverb will be an indefinite noun in the accusative case.

Example:

Adverb of Place	Adverb of Time
ظُرْتُ الْمَكَانَ	ظُرْتُ الزَّمَانَ
بَيْتُ الْإِمَامِ أَمَامَ الْمَسْجِدِ . The Imam's house is in front of the masjid.	دَخَلَ فِي الْبَيْتِ لَيْلًا . He entered in the house at night .
Possessive Compound + Accusative Case	Indefinite Noun (تَكْرِيهًا) + Accusative Case

⁸ As with all Arabic grammar rules, at times there will be exceptions. For beginners, the above information is sufficient.
